Public Comment

Jason Dougherty stated little league was very successful. 194 players and we made $833 in the concession stand. All players were given medals. He also suggested that we purchase a shed to get equipment away from the concession stand. He also stated that the scoreboard is not working properly and that we are going to need a new one.

Bill Anderson expressed his appreciation for the board allowing him to mow the lawn.

Annette Spaulding stated that she is very happy with how the cemetery looks now. She also asked if we thought about asbestos being in the old hall when it is torn down.

Tony Knettleton had zoning questions about the rock quarry being put in by his home. Zoning meeting is scheduled for this on July 29th in Schoolcraft county court house. Very happy with the results of the liquid chloride placed by his home.

Pat Carley was asking about details for the new town hall.

Transactions

Payments made in the amount of $14,698.43 and deposits of $11,904.50. Motion C. Watchorn Support B. Landis AIF M/C

Motion to adjourn the meeting at 7:35 p.m. was made by K. Stapleton Supported by C. Watchorn AIF M/C.

Others present at the meeting at Inwood Township Hall were: Jason Dougherty, John Weimer, Pat and Jan Carley, Bill Anderson, Annette Spaulding, Terry and Sandy Brooks, Cindy Swayer, and Tony and Mikey Knettleton.
